

Edgewater Gazette Proposes Partnership with Edgewater Police Department to Enhance Community Communication

Edgewater, FL — September 7, 2025 — The Edgewater Gazette, a trusted local news outlet serving Volusia County, has formally reached out to Chief Mahoney of the Edgewater Police Department to propose a collaborative partnership aimed at improving public access to timely and accurate information.

The Gazette's proposal includes distributing official press releases from the department covering public safety updates, community events, crime prevention tips, and emergency alerts. By offering a consistent and professional platform for these communications, the Gazette hopes to strengthen transparency, civic engagement, and trust between law enforcement and the Edgewater community.

"Our goal is to ensure residents receive reliable information directly from the source," said a spokesperson for the Edgewater Gazette. "We believe this partnership can help bridge the gap between public service and public awareness, and we're committed to presenting updates with clarity and respect."

The Gazette has expressed its willingness to work with the department to establish a regular format and schedule for sharing updates, and looks forward to discussing the opportunity further.
